Out popped a little green dinosaur!

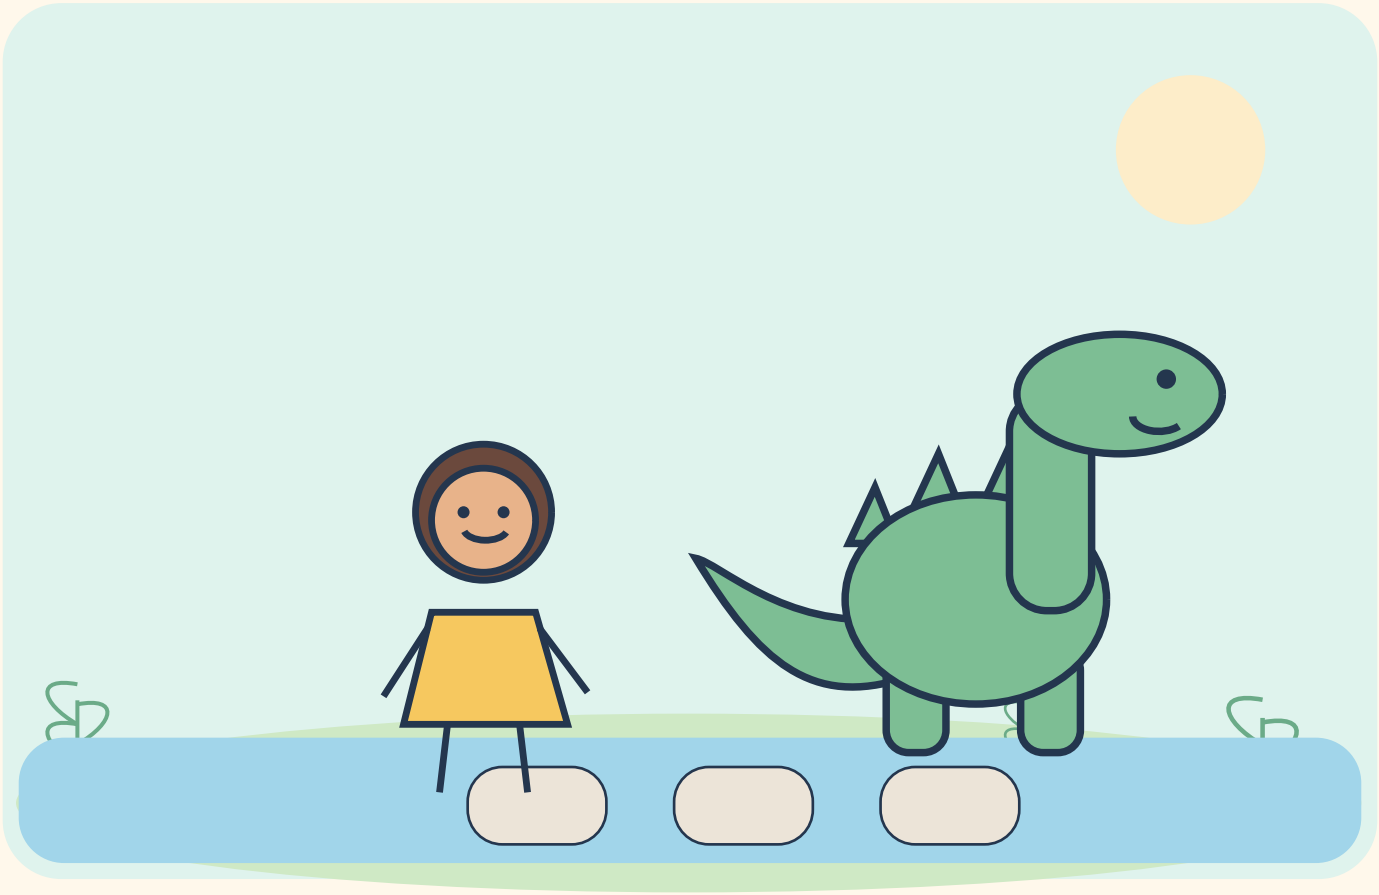

"Peep!" it squeaked.

"Are you lost?" Emma asked. The dinosaur nodded.

"I will help you find your mummy," said Emma.

The Roaring River

Read together. Point at the pictures and talk about the story.

Emma and the dinosaur came to a rushing river.

Splish! Splash! Splosh!

"Follow me," said Emma. They hopped across the stones.

"We did it!" she cheered.

The Giant Footprints

Read together. Point at the pictures and talk about the story.

On the other side, Emma spotted huge muddy footprints.

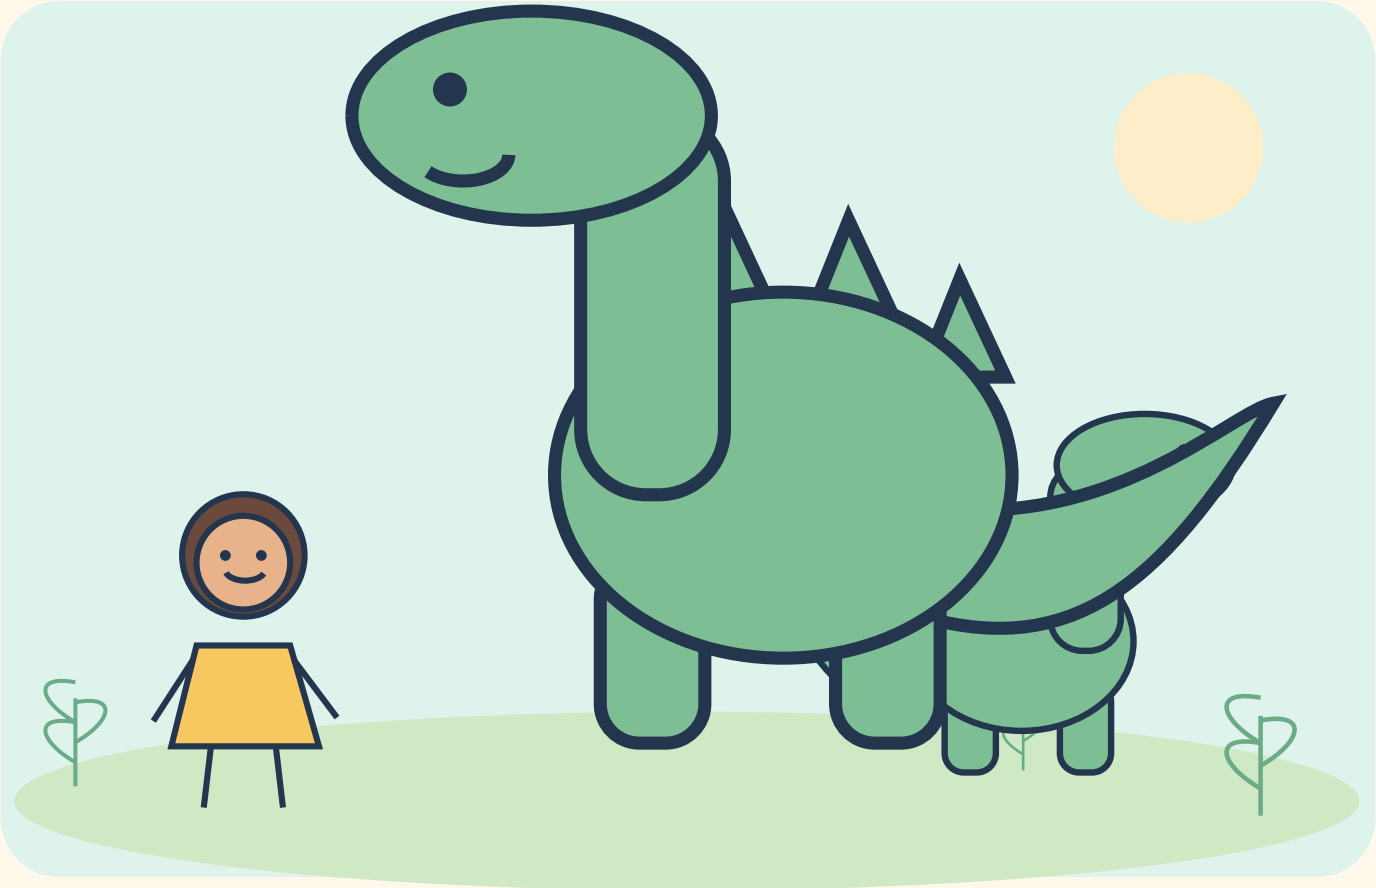

"Maybe these belong to your mummy!" she said.

The little dinosaur gave a happy squeak.

Together, they followed the tracks.

Mummy Dinosaur!

Read together. Point at the pictures and talk about the story.

The footprints led to a meadow full of flowers.

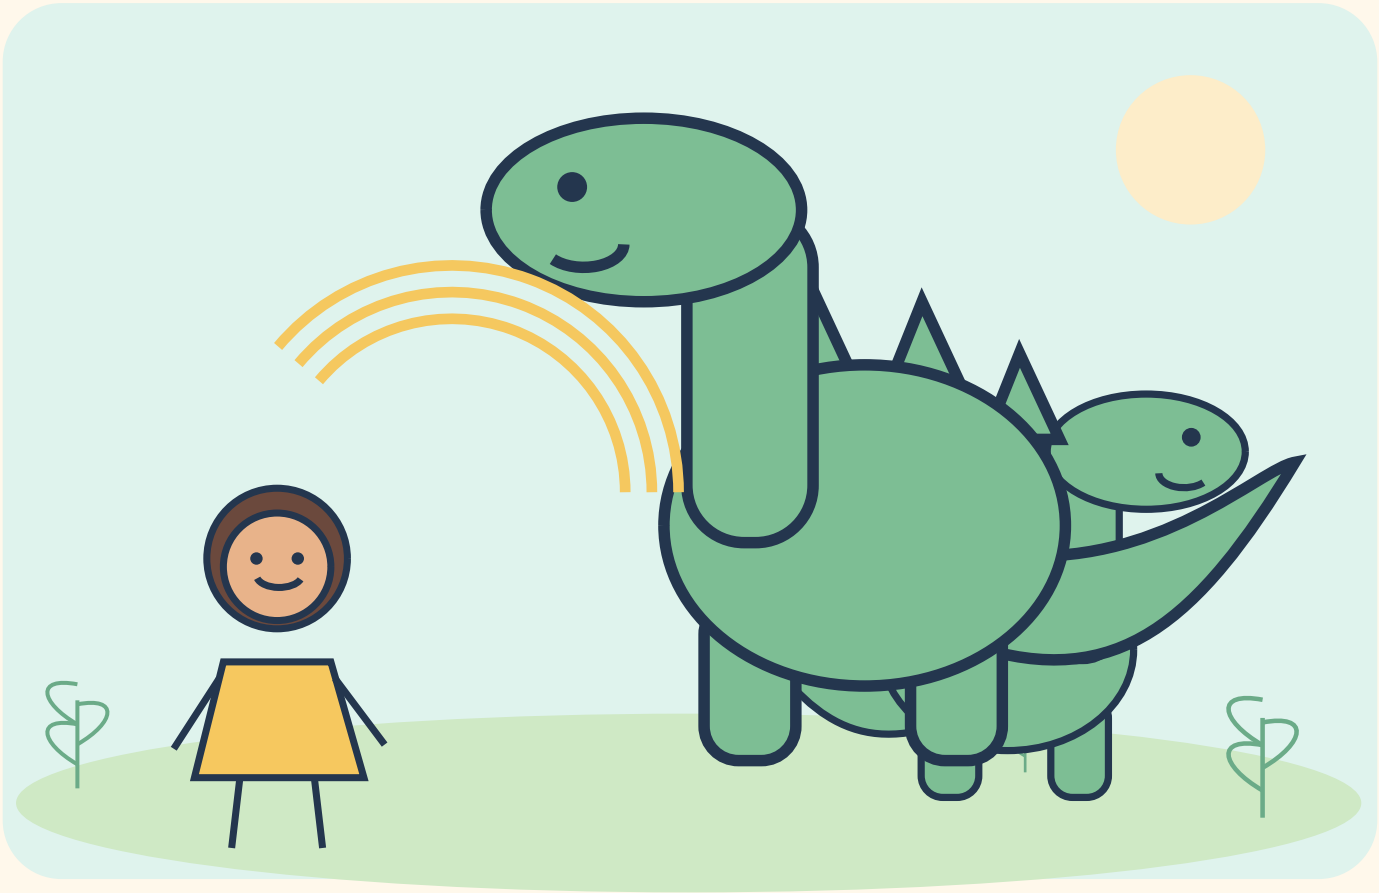

A kind, long-necked dinosaur stood beside the trees.

"Mummy!" Emma cried. The baby ran to her.

Mummy Dinosaur gave her baby a gentle cuddle.

A Friend Forever

Read together. Point at the pictures and talk about the story.

Emma waved as the dinosaurs walked into the sunlight.

"Goodbye, little friend!" she called.

A tiny "Peep, peep!" floated back through the trees.

Emma smiled. What a wonderful adventure!
